

Schnitger and Schnitzels 2015

destination Northern Germany

24 to 27 August 2015

Following the runaway success of the 2013 Organ Club-sponsored study visit to Hamburg we invite organists of all ages and standards for inspiration and relaxation in

Hamburg, Lübeck and Lüneburg

Student Masterclasses and supervised 'Open Console' sessions at celebrated historic and modern organs

- places for 20 masterclass participants
- and for any number wishing 'hands-on' console-time
- plus a warm welcome to Observers too!

promoted by

WHAT'S ON OFFER?

- play the finest historic and modern organs in Northern Germany
- coaching and inspiration from top tutors
- contribute to Student Recital (within the oldest public concert series in Germany) at Hamburg's Petrikirche
- stay in cosmopolitan Hamburg
- expert guidance from lead-tutors

James Parsons

Organ Club Vice-President, Birmingham Conservatoire Tutor in Organ, RCO Head of Student Development, and international recitalist

Director of Music at Royal Hospital School, and international recitalist

- masterclasses by Professor Arvid Gast and KMD Joachim Vogelsänger
- and a genial welcome from host John Miley

Organ Club Past-President

DRAFT ITINERARY

Monday 24 August to organs in Lübeck

40 minutes by train from Hamburg

Skt Jakobi (with Prof Arvid Gast) three historic organs by Stellwagen, Schuke (in historic case) and Richborn

play Sweelinck, Buxtehude, Tunder, Bach etc

Lübeck Dom

neo-classical Marcussen organ try Hindemith, Walcha, Distler etc – also anything Baroque of course

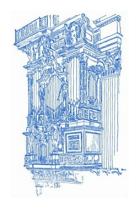

Marienkirche (Buxtehude's Church)

epic 5-manual Kemper

try anything Baroque (German or French), Mendelssohn, Liszt, Reger

DRAFT ITINERARY Continued

Tuesday 25 August to organs in Lüneburg

30 minutes by train from Hamburg

Skt Johannis - Georg Böhm's Church

(with Kirchen Musik Direktor Joachim Vogelsänger)

two organs: von Beckerath play Baroque and Kuhn play romantic and modern Michaeliskirche (where J S Bach was a boy chorister) historic organ by Niehoff/ Dropa/ von Beckerath play anything Baroque or 20th century German

Nikolaikirche

19th century organ by Furtwängler & Hammer play Rinck, Mendelssohn, Liszt, Rheinberger, Reger

DRAFT ITINERARY Continued

Wednesday 26 and Thursday 27 August to organs in Hamburg

Jacobikirche

world-famous Baroque organ by Arp Schniter play anything from the North German School

Petrikirche

versatile 3-manual neo-classical organ by von Beckerath James and William coach students to play the public Stunde der Kirchenmusik recital

Catharinenkirche

sensational new 'Bach' organ by Flentrop play Bach!

Michaeliskirche

three recently-restored organs, by Steinmeyer, Marcussen and Späth with state-of-the-art detached console play absolutely anything!

Attend celebrity Hamburger Orgelsommer 2015 recital at Michaeliskirche

then COURSE DINNER to conclude grand console, Michaeliskirche, Hamburg

THE COST

£180 (Students)

£120 (Players)

£120 (OCSO members)

£100 (Observers)

covers

- tutors, and masterclasses (for Students)
- console time (except for Observers)
- admission to concerts

WHAT'S LEFT FOR YOU TO FIND

- your own flights (cheap fares with Luftahnsa or Easyjet)
- your own accommodation in Hamburg (lots of great deals to be had—and the Youth Hostel is highly-recommended)
- your own rail fares from Hamburg to Lübeck and Lüneburg cheap!
- cost of Course Dinner (reasonable cost to be advised)

Please contact John Miley: imiley@iee.org for more details and with enquiries.

YES! – PLEASE SIGN ME IN FOR Schnitger and Schnitzels 2015

to John Miley Portrane, 7 Pridmore Close, Woodnewton Peterborough PE8 5EY

Dear John

Please count me in as a STUDENT/ PLAYER/ OBSERVER (delete as appropriate) at £180 / £120 / £100 (delete as appropriate)

I enclose a deposit of £50 (cheque payable The Organ Club) and will pay the balance by 1 August 2015.

Name
Email address
Postal address
Telephone number (mobile preferred)

(acknowledgement, further queries/ information and advice re travel and accommodation will be sent to all applicants)

