

TEENAGE ORGANISTS—JOIN US AT THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC on
SATURDAY 20 FEBRUARY 2016 (0930–1730)
for
THE CONSERVATOIRE EXPERIENCE

PRESENTED BY RCO ACADEMY AND THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Kuhn Organ, Duke's Hall

Rieger at St Marylebone

Royal Academy of Music, NW1

TEENAGERS KEEN TO PURSUE THEIR ORGAN PLAYING THROUGH HIGHER EDUCATION WILL WELCOME THIS DAY-PROGRAMME WHICH FLINGS WIDE THE DOORS OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

PROFESSOR DAVID TITTERINGTON (RAM HEAD OF ORGAN) HOSTS OUR DAY OF DISCOVERY.

PLAY

- the stunning new Sir Elton John and Ray Cooper organ, built by Kuhn, in RAM's Duke's Hall
- the iconic four-manual Rieger organ in Marylebone Parish Church

ENJOY TUITION IN CLASSES TUTORED BY

David Titterington

RAM Organ Tutors Anne Marsden Thomas and Gerard Brooks

James Parsons (Birmingham Conservatoire and RCO Academy)

ATTEND RECITAL by RAM Organ Students – meet and chat to them

EXPLORE the Academy's inspiring facilities

CONSIDER A PREMIER PATHWAY TOWARDS BECOMING A PROFESSIONAL ORGANIST

BRITISH CONSERVATOIRES –

The Royal Academy of Music, The Royal College of Music, Trinity College of Music, Birmingham Conservatoire, The Royal Northern College of Music, and The Royal Conservatoire of Scotland – set the standard for organists to develop their performing skills to the highest levels, within degree courses. All feature teachers who are at the top of their game in the competitive world of professional music-making, coupled with fabulous facilities and opportunities.

YOU WILL HEAR ABOUT THEM ALL.

SIGN UP FOR

THE CONSERVATOIRE EXPERIENCE

BOOK ONLINE AT

<https://www.rco.org.uk/events.php?eventid=430>

James Parsons

Anne Marsden Thomas

Gerard Brooks

David Titterington