

London Organ competition

St. Clement Danes Church, Strand, London

Saturday 29th December 2016

Joining Instructions.

Junior Section. Available for 7 selected candidates.

Age: up to and including 16 on 29 December 2016

1st Prize £400, 2nd Prize £200

Competitors will be required to play a piece by J.S. Bach and a second piece of their own choice, the total performance to last no longer than 12 minutes.

The performance must be preceded by a short spoken introduction providing information of interest to the audience. One copy of each piece, (not a photo copy) must be made available to the Competition Administrator at least 30 minutes before the start of the category.

A preparation time of 15 minutes will be allocated to each candidate on the organ of St. Clement Danes during the morning of December 29th. The specification of the organ can be found at NPOR.

Please submit a CD, MP3 or mobile recording for shortlisting. This should be a different piece to that for the competition performance lasting no longer than 10 minutes, and may be by any composer.

The first and second prize winners will be given free entry to the Northern Ireland International Competition to take place in Armagh in August 2017.
